

Sixth Avenue Café in Calicut, Kerala

Nestled in the heart of Calicut, or as the locals prefer to call it, Kozhikode, Sixth Avenue Café (SAC) ranks high in the list of the most popular cafes in town. SAC greets you with the vibrance of turquoise blue and the grandeur of sheer white perfectly intertwining to manifest that exemplary European vibe. And if you think the café is just all about European looks, wait till you get a glimpse of their lavish menu that endorses cuisines like American, European, Mexican and so much more. The café is specially known for its heavenly desserts that entice customers to revisit the cafe time and again. Other than a classy and contemporary ambience, the delicious menu and courteous staff is what adds to the stature of the café. With working hours stretching from noon to midnight, the café is one of the most popular hubs alluring the millennials in the city. In fact at peak hours, there is a long queue for a table, but customers often ignore the inconvenience of the wait in order to savour the exceptional dining experience that this place has to offer.